TOUR PANAJACHEL ONE DAY

Time: 10 hrs.

Departure: From Antigua Guatemala at 07:30 a.m

Description

At indicated time, depart for breathtaking Lake Atitlan, a deep-blue volcanic crater lake surrounded by three volcanoes San Pedro, Atitlán and Tolimán, and the colorful Maya villages resting on its shores. Described as one of the most beautiful lakes in the world by late British author Aldous Huxley, it is definitely one of Guatemala's most spectacular natural attractions. Our boat trip to San Juan La Laguna, where the Tz'utujil people live, between its many hills and mountains. Ancestral traditions and one-of-a-kind natural marvels have been conserved here for many years. Descendants of the Maya ethnicity Tz'utujil (Flower of milapa) call San Juan la Laguna their home. Then, at the end of the tour, you will be transferred to the Antigua Guatemala Hotel.

Transfer from your hotel to the Guatemalan Highlands along the Panamerican Highway to Chichicastenango, a quiche Indian town surrounded by hills and mountains that jealously keep the inhabitants' traditions, as they melt their prehispanic and catholic rituals at the 400 years old church of Santo Tomas, built on the remains of a Mayan Temple. Here, market days, Thursdays and Sundays, acquire great meaning and smoky incense impregnates the atmosphere with mysticism and religiosity. People barter their product and the market explodes with color, tradition, and folklore. At indicated time, transfer to Panajachel, a village located on the shores of Lake Atitlan, considered one of the most beautiful lakes around the world, surrounded by three volcanoes Atitlan, Tolimán, and San Pedro that are protecting the lake. At the end of the tour, you will be transferred to Guatemala City
